

House Resolution No. 122

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding young Missouri citizen who has distinguished herself as a leader of her peers; and

Whereas, Marissa Maddy, a student at Park Hill High School in Kansas City, Missouri, will receive the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen Award during a special presentation to be held February 2, 2002, at the Platte Woods United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, Marissa Maddy has excelled in her studies at Park Hill High School where she maintains an impressive 3.77 G.P.A., takes advanced college courses, and participates in a wide variety of extracurricular activities including Student Council, National Honor Society, Executive Council, Peer Mediation, Interact Club, Junior Assembly, Upper Classmen As Role Models Always (U.C.A.R.M.A.), Spanish Club, Pep Club, Multicultural Club, Natural Helpers, the League of United Latin American Citizens (L.U.L.A.C.), and the Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America (F.C.C.L.A.); and

Whereas, selected by her peers as the 2001 Homecoming Queen, Marissa Maddy currently serves as Captain of the Varsity Track and Field Team while fulfilling her duties away from school that include working as a waitress, babysitting, and helping with fundraisers for the United Way or other organizations; and

Whereas, listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students, Marissa Maddy looks forward to continuing her education after her graduation from high school at the university of her choice where she hopes to study communications and Spanish before realizing her dream of one day working for a large corporation interpreting and communicating with others; and

Whereas, Marissa Maddy has achieved all of this and more with the love, support, and encouragement of her proud parents, Bob and Melba Maddy:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Marissa Maddy at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for DAR Good Citizen Award recipient, Marissa Maddy.
